REPORTS AND COMMUNICATIONS

Office of the Mayor

J. Burke: Mayor Casey stated, we decided to invite Joe Burke to our meeting to honor him. Joe is a big part of TOYS FOR TOTS, which helps our Christmas with Santa and Alderman Walsh's Toy Drive. Joe has been helping us for 4 or 5 years and has helped us make sure over 1200 kids have received toys. Mayor Casey presented Joe with a Certificate of Appreciation and a key to the City.

J. Plante Mayor Casey asked Mrs. Jane Plante to step forward, Mrs. Plante started the Kiddy Kapers program in 1968 and many, many Hometown children have gone through this program. Many Hometown families have had several generations of children attend the Kiddy Kapers program. Mayor Casey stated this was most likely started in someone's kitchen. Mrs. Plante said that was exactly how it was started. Mayor Casey recognized Dave Walsh in the audience. Mr. Walsh was a former Alderman and Park Board member and was a very big supporter of the program as it started. Mayor Casey stated we received a letter nominating Jane Plante for the Mae Randle Honor Board and with a unanimous vote of the committee Mrs. Jane Plante is now on the Mae Randle Honor Board. Mrs. Plante thanked her family and friends for all of their support and all of the teachers that have been a part of the Kiddy Kapers Program.

Police Chief: Mayor Casey stated, after many interviews of candidates by Alderman Touchie, Finnegan and Banasiak and himself, they reached a decision on Police Chief. There were several meetings with this candidate; he met all of our criteria and then some. He comes to us from the Crestwood Police Department which is also a part-time department. He is a trainer, he will be able to train our officers, he has a strong IT background and as we move into more of an electronic department that will be an added plus, he will also do IT for the whole building.

Mayor Casey introduced Garry Winer.

Moved by Alderman Grochowski, seconded by Alderman Touchie to authorize the Mayor and City Clerk to sign the contract between the City of Hometown and Garry Winer.
